

MEGHALAYA STATE COMMISSION FOR PROTECTION OF CHILD RIGHTS

ANNUAL REPORT 2017-2018

Forward

It is indeed a privilege and Honour to be appointed as the Chairperson, State Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Meghalaya for the second Term and I sincerely acknowledge the trust bestowed upon me by the State Government.

There are growing development Issues and Challenges in protecting the Rights of Children in India and Meghalaya is not an exception, therefore our priority is “Safeguarding the needs and Rights of Children” within the mandate of the Commission with special emphasis on the Rights of the under privileged and marginalized sections of the Society as they are dual victims of vulnerable situations.

Protecting Children and bringing positive changes in their lives proposes a holistic approach which must be addressed collectively.

The Annual Report, 2017- 18 of the Meghalaya State Commission for Protection of child Rights documents all important Activities of the Commission including interaction with different stakeholders, Child Rights Practitioners, other State Commissions and NCPCR as well.

In spite of functioning without it's full complement of Members in the course of the Financial year, it was ensured that MSCPCR did justice to it's mandate in respect of Child Rights in a pro-active manner in the best Interest of the Children of the State.

Smti. M. Kharkongor,
Chairperson
SCPCR
Meghalaya.

Meghalaya State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (MSCPCR)

VISION

In keeping with the vision of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, the Mandate of the Meghalaya State Commission for Protection of Child Rights, is to ensure that all Laws, Policies, Programmes, and Administrative Mechanisms are in consonance with the Child Rights perspective as enshrined in the Constitution of India and also the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. The Child is defined as a person in the 0 to 18 years Age group. The Commission visualizes a right-based perspective and in order to touch every child, it seeks a deeper penetration to communities and households and expects that the ground experiences gathered at the field are taken into consideration by all the Authorities at the higher level. Thus the Commission sees an indispensable role for the State, sound Institution-building processes, respect for Decentralization at the local bodies and Community level and larger Societal concern for children and their well-being.

ROLE OF MSCPCR

The State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (SCPCR) was constituted under the Commissions for protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 by the Govt. of Meghalaya on 28th February 2014. The Act empowers the Commission to act as a Civil Court, to undertake suo-motu enquiry and also look into complaints relating to deprivation and violation of child rights and non implementation of laws for protection and development of children. The Commission monitors rescue & rehabilitation of child labour, matters falling under the RTE Act, POCSO Act, JJ Act 2015, medical crises in schools, children's right to play in parks, prevention of sexual abuse of children, checking child trafficking and all issues connected with children in need of care and protection and children in conflict with law.

FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE COMMISSION

Section 13 (1) of the Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 lays down the functions of the Commission as follows:-

- a) Examine and review the safeguards provided by or under any law for the time being in force for the protection of child rights and recommend measures for their effective implementation;

- b) Present to the State Government, annually and at such other intervals, as the Commission may deem fit, reports upon the working of those safeguards;
  - c) Inquire into violation of child rights and recommend initiation of proceedings in such cases;

11TH APRIL 2017

Programme was held at St. Mary's College on the Presentation on the POCSO Act, 2012 against Girl Child and the FAO's on RTE Act, 2009. The session was deliberated by the Chairperson, State Commission for Protection of Child Rights. The presentation on Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2009 was shown to the participants where all the relevant sections of the Act was explained in detail. The POCSO Act covers all children below the age of 18 years irrespective of gender. There are stringent punishment for offenders and Special courts are to try such cases preferably within one year from taking cognizance of the case. Abetment and Attempt to commit the offence is also punishable under this act. Burden of proof is upon the accused person. Media are barred to report cases which will disclose the identity of the victim and the punishment for violation shall be 6 months to 1(one) year with fine. This act is only applicable to child survivors and Adult offenders. If a child commits the offence, he/she shall be forwarded to the Juvenile Justice Board of the districts concerned.

The Right to Education Act, 2009 was explained in brief wherein all children of the age of 6 to 14 years coming from backward and downtrodden families were given Free and Compulsory Education through the government, Govt. Aided Schools and the SSA Schools. The RTE Act, 2009 still has a lot of shortcomings in implementation and the Education Department has a lot to do to improve the quality of Education in the state.
